AN ORCHID FOR OUR TEACHERS

You, our teachers, deserve an orchid for your faithfulness. Day in and day out, month in and month out, you work, never complaining about your lot, seldom receiving the credit you deserve.

You, our teachers, deserve an orchid for your patience. The work you do tries patience. Those who sometimes criticize you, how long would they have the patience to do your work?

You, our teachers, deserve an orchid for your vision. It's sometimes easy, unless you have vision to wonder whether teaching is after all worth while. The work is hard, rewards small. But you see more than a roomful of small faces when you teach; you see tomorrow's generation.

You, our teachers, deserve an orchid for your fortitude. It takes courage to be a good teacher--courage to withstand the criticism, the trials the changing world.

Finally you, our teachers deserve an orchid for your contribution to civilization. Often you aren't appreciated. Often the results of your work are not apparent. But, somewhere, someday, as your former pupils, will be doing a little better work, living a little better life, because of what you and your personality meant to us. And for that, of course, you deserve your biggest orchid! YOU SERVE.

CLASS PROPHECY

February 1, 1901

Dear Teachers and Students of Troy High School:

Hasn't it been a long time since we have seen or heard of the seniors of '51? Well, maybe we had better check up on them.

The members of the class appear as follows:

Joe Riley has built himself a little shack out on Rock Island where he is fishing for a living and waiting for Mary Ann Munier to call him her very own.

Dick Bolin is now the owner of one of the largest distilleries in Kentucky. We sincerely hope he has learned to get tight by now without putting on.

We see where Alma J. Riley is now living in Hoboken where she is running a cafeteria trying to catch herself a man with her cooking.

Marie Huff is now living in California where she is picking oranges for her husband and on New Years is queen of the Rose Bowl.

Doris E. is now going to college where she is taking up school teaching so she can come back to Troy and teach all of her children how to read and write.

Ambrose Braunecker has just got out of the army which he chose for a career. He is still running around thinking all the girls like him.

Alfred Munier is waiting patiently for Mary Lou Cash to get out of school, so he can take her out on his Lazy Acre farm, where it is all ultra-modern and he doesn't need any fertilizer.

James Wolf is now residing in Hollywood where he is starring in the picture, "When Jimmy Comes Marching Home." This picture is to be shown on the local school ground.

Merle Shepard is now going to college at Northwestern U. where he is taking up a course in chickens. He is trying to learn which came first—the egg or the chicken.

Ruby Bolin is now the sole proprietor of one of the largest bowling alleys in New York. She has a large neon sign on the front of the building which reads, "Bowl with Bolin."

Paul Scherzer is now living on a large farm in Spencer County. Paul's main occupation is raising hogs, cattle, and children.

Dutton MacBride is now attending college. After graduation Dutton plans to teach history at the University of Troy.

Mabel Foerster is now married to Bob Anson. They are living on a farm near Tobinsport. For your information Mabel only has ten handsome Ansons.

Willie Mae Blake is an outstanding cheer leader at Purdue University.

Milred Bolin is now working at G. E. and is patiently waiting for Jim Kuntz to return from the navy.

Barbara L. is now the star basketball player for the famous, "Red-heads." She led them in scoring last season and is repeating again this season.

James Kuntz is now Commander of one of the largest hospital ships in the Navy.

This is all the information we could collect at the present time. We were very happy to find the seniors of '51 doing so well and hope they will continue to do so in the years to come. The best of luck to each and every one of you.

Sincerely yours,

OUR CHEER LEADERS

During the 1951-1952 basketball season we had three cheer leaders. They were Mary Cravens, Willie Mae Blake, and Dolores Fortwendel. These girls have been very faithful in leading the team in cheering whether our team was winning or losing.

June Bolin and Frieda Albritton, two of our cheer leaders of last year, resigned, making it necessary to elect two new cheer leaders to help Mary carry on the job of leading the cheers for our team.

There were six candidates for this position. They were Carolyn Tuggle, a Freshman, Dolores Fortwendel, a Sophomore, Virginia Malone and Erma Hammack, Juniors, and Willie Mae Blake, a Senior. The two girls chosen by the student body were Willie Mae Blake, and Dolores Fortwendel.

Mary Cravens, a Junior, is 17 years of age, has brown hair, blue eyes, and is 5 feet 4 inches tall. This is her second year as cheer leader.

Willie Mae Blake, a Senior, is 17 years of age. Has brown hair, blue eyes, and is 5 feet 4 inches tall.

Dolores Fortwendel, a Sophomore, is 16 years of age, has brown hair, blue eyes, and is 5 feet 2 inches tall.

The cheer leaders wore green skirts with gold lining, green sweaters, white blouses, tights, and green and white shoes this year. They also had gold sweaters that they wore some of the time.

These girls did a very good job of cheering this year, even though our basketball record for this year was not very good. We were very proud of our cheer leaders this year and hope that Dolores and Mary will continue to carry on the good work in the years to come.

MEMORIES

As we look back
on the last four years,
Here are some memories
That almost bring tears.

Remember:

When we were green freshmen and all the fun we had getting acquainted with all the other students.....The time Doris E. fell out of her seat when she was a freshmen.....How mad we were because we didn't get to go on a picnic when we were freshmen.....The time Mr. Walk had trouble pronouncing expense.....The time Barbara L. started to sit down in her seat and sat down on the floor instead, and she was really embarrassed because she had just started to school here.....How much trouble we had getting our practice sets in Bookkeeping.....The time Ruby B. threw a book at James K. and hit his ink bottle spilling the ink on the floor, and they just got it cleaned up as Mr. Hall came into the room.....The first time we went to gather ads for the Trojan and it rained and we got wet.....Those school parties we had and how much fun we had.....The time we took a field trip in Biology and tried to learn the names of the different trees.....How much fun we had discussing Family Relations in Home Ec.....The time Alma Jean spilled her ink and the trouble she had cleaning it up.....The time Paul S. defined, divine as meaning a club.....How nervous we were when we gave speeches in observance of United Nations Day.....What a time we had thinking of something to put in the Trojan and how many mistakes we made in typing the stencils.....The time we went to the town hall to do some filing and Mr. Walk burned his overcoat, and he said he could get him a new one now.....The fun we had drawing the plans for our dream house and furnishing it when we were Juniors.....The day Mr. Muenier gave us a Government test and we weren't prepared for it.....The fun Doris and Mildred had taking pictures for the year book.....How much we enjoyed popping popcorn for the ball games when we were Juniors.....The time Miss Conway said she didn't know how we were going to be heard in the gym when we gave our class play, because we didn't talk loud enough.....What a time we had learning to type well.....The time we went to Tell City to get ads for the school paper and ran out of gas.....Remember when Ruby B. had a crush on Jim K.....Remember the Senior party we gave on January 23, and all the fun everybody had.....How much we disliked going down the fire escape... ..Remember the day Mildred broke the heel off her shoe.....The time the bottom fell out of Ruby F. desk during English class.....Remember the day Mr. LeClare got file mixed up with fire.....The time Mr. Hall came into the room and caught Doris E. climbing over her seat.....When we were Juniors and the boys hid their Literature books and told Miss Conway that they couldn't find them.....How Merle and James W. always liked to fuss with Miss Conway... ..How much we didn't want to take Public Speaking but it was a required subject.....Remember when Mr. Muenier tried to play Tarzan on the Junior-Senior outing and skinned his nose.....When Paul S. pushed Alma Jean in a mud puddle on the Junior-Senior outing.....How Mabel F. always used to come in late for the first period class.....How much we hated to give our first speech in Public Speaking, but it wasn't too bad.....All the fun we had on the Junior-Senior outing.....The time Willie Mae B. read distribution on purchases instead of discount on purchases.....What speed demons we were in typing and how Mr. Walk use to imitate our unusual habits in typing.....The time Miss Conway read walking in the fun is rain instead of waiting in the rain is fun.....How mad Barbara L. got when she had to move up front so the Bookkeeping class would be together.....The time Mr. Walk spilled ink all over his pants.....The time we make gathered skirts in Home Ec. when we were freshmen.....How we practiced bandaging in Home Nursing when we were Sophomores.....Remember the time in Home Ec. when we learned how to make a bed with the patient in it and Mildred was the patient and almost got dumped on the floor.....Remember the time Doris couldn't give her speech for laughing.....Remember the speech Merle gave about his big drunk and Miss Conway said it was good.....The time Willie Mae B. and Marie put a new ribbon in their typewriters and what a time they had getting it in right.....How Alfred M. and Paul S. always use to come in late for the first period class because they were smoking.....The time James W. read Shall I show you to a sheet, instead of Shall I show you to a seat.....When we were making beds in Home Ec. and Mabel almost dumped Willie Mae B. off.....Remember all the fun we had in school.....Most of all remember Troy High School.

EPITAPHS

We, the senior class of 1951, have come to the parting of our ways at Troy High School. Although at times school has seemed like a drudgery, it has been only too short. Some of us may say that we will never miss school but we know that in the years to come, it will bring back many pleasant memories.

The senior class have chosen these words as their farewell to you:

|---------------------|--|
| Mabel Foerster: | Twelve years of toil and trouble, but I finally made it. |
| Barbara Leinenbach: | These twelve years have been well worth my time. |
| Jim Kuntz: | I've spent six years in high school but I finally made it. |
| Alma Jean Riley: | If at first you don't succeed, try, try again. That's what I did. |
| Merle Shephard: | Goodbye, so long,
I'm glad I'm gone. |
| Ruby Bolin: | Four happy years gone by, and now I can say goodbye; but my thoughts will still be of Troy High. |
| Richard Bolin: | Let's say goodbye, like we said hello, in a friendly sort of way. |
| Doris Englebrecht: | The past four years have been well spent. |
| Marie Huff: | These years have been worth it! |
| Joe Riley: | I had a lot of fun; now at last I'm done. |
| Mildred Bolin: | In high school, I've had much happiness. |
| James Wolf: | So long, it's been good to know you. |
| Ambrose Braunecker: | I called it a prison
Played hooky too,
But to think of leavin'
Makes me feel blue. |
| Alfred Neunier: | Remember me! |
| Willie Mae Blake: | Was it worth twelve years? |
| Dutton MacBride: | Twelve years! Should I go four more? |
| Paul Schezer: | I'll see you later. |

SENIOR CLASS EPITAPH

Though life has its trouble and life has its care
And often its dark days of sorrow,
There is always the hope that the sky will be fair
And the heart will be happy tomorrow.

There is always the light of a goal just ahead,
A glimpse of the dream we're pursuing,
In spite of the difficult pathway we tread
There is much it is good to be doing.

There is so much to do and there's so much to see
In spite of the troubles that fret us;
So much to wait for and so much to be
If only the future will let us--
